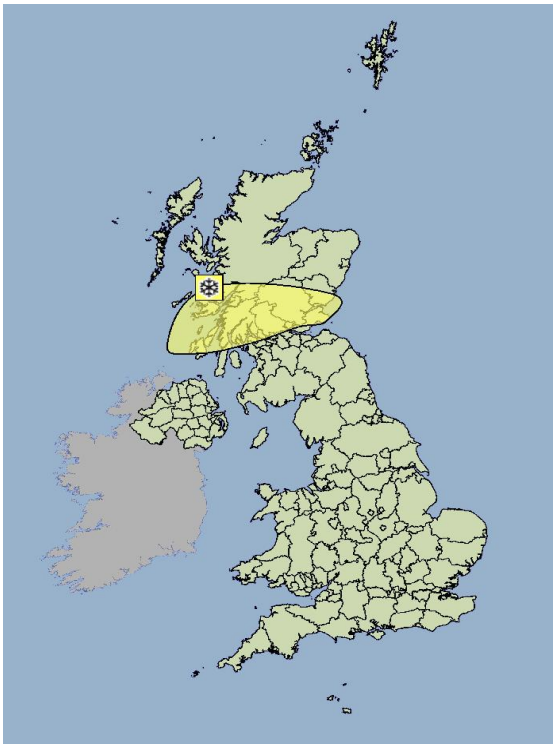
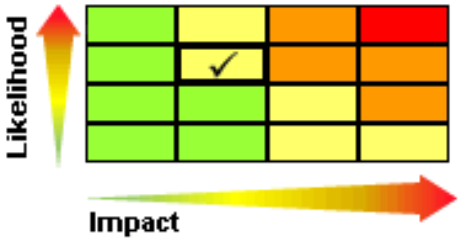
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
A depression moving into the area is encountering cold air, bringing snow even to low levels at times.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Snow

Valid from 09:00 on Thu, 28th Apr 2016 until 23:00 on Thu, 28th Apr 2016

An area of snow will cross central parts of Scotland from west to east today bringing accumulations of 3-6 cm, principally above 100 m, with the risk of more than 10 cm above 200 m or so. At lower levels a mix of rain, sleet and snow is expected.

Please be aware of the risk of difficult driving conditions and disruption to transport.
